WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY¹

¹ As adopted by the Board of Directors in its meeting dated 30th January, 2019 and further amended vide Resolution passed in Board meeting dated 7th March, 2022

METRO BRANDS LIMITED

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

I. Preamble

- a. Whoever we may deal with and wherever we may operate, we are committed to doing so lawfully, ethically and with integrity. It is the responsibility of each and every one of us to ensure that we fulfil this commitment in our day to day working lives. However, from time to time there may be situations where the right course of action is unclear or there may be situations where you suspect or know that something is improper, unethical or inappropriate.

We have legal and moral duty to take appropriate measures to identify such situations and shall attempt to provide a remedy .

It is sometimes difficult to know whether to speak up about something that concerns us. Often people are reluctant to get involved but this could result in serious consequences for the Company and its employees.

- b. Further, pursuant to Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Clause 4 (2)(d)(iv) of Chapter II of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 the Company may formulate a whistleblower policy wherein the Company “shall devise an effective whistle blower mechanism enabling stakeholders, including individual employees and their representative bodies, to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices”.
- c. Accordingly, the Company has put in place this Whistleblower Policy (the “Policy”) to provide stakeholders including directors and employees an avenue to raise bonafide concerns if they observe unethical and improper practices, irregularities, governance weaknesses, financial reporting issues or leak/ suspected leak of any unpublished price sensitive information or any other wrongful conduct, and, to prohibit Victimization of Whistleblower’s who have reported in accordance with this Policy.

II. Definitions and Interpretation

“Whistleblower” means a director or an Employee who reports a Concern in accordance with this Policy.

“Whistleblower Committee” shall mean a whistleblower investigation committee, formed by the Management which comprises of individuals listed in Annexure II, to investigate Concerns in accordance with this Policy.

III. Raising Concerns

- a. All Concerns must be raised with the Designated Official, in writing, stating the following:
 - i. an outline of the known or suspected wrongdoing;
 - ii. details, to the best of knowledge, about when, where and how it occurred;
 - iii. a list of persons suspected of being involved (both within organization and externally);
 - iv. a list of persons who may have relevant information;
 - v. details of how you came to know about the suspected activities;
 - vi. what if any, do you estimate to be the value of the loss to Informant or other parties;
 - vii. what if any, breaches of internal controls, policy, procedure or other requirements you believe took place;
 - viii. any specific recommendations you have for actions;
 - ix. the list of persons who you have discussed or reported this incident to;
 - x. name and contact details of the person reporting the Concern. Please note – these will be kept confidential as far as is reasonably practicable; and
 - xi. The date and time of making the report.
- b. The Whistleblower will be sent an acknowledgment within two (2) working days upon receipt of the Concern. The Whistleblower may also raise the Concern to the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.
- c. The Designated Official shall evaluate whether or not an anonymous Concern should be investigated in accordance with this Policy. The Whistleblowers may specifically request for anonymity, in which case, the identity of the Whistleblower will be kept confidential. In any case, the identity of the Whistleblower shall be revealed only to the extent required for Investigations and shall remain confidential with the Designated Official and/or the Whistleblower Committee and with Company officials implementing Disciplinary Action and/or taking other decisions on Whistleblower cases.
- d. The role of the Whistleblowers shall be limited to raising a legitimate Concern. If necessary, the Designated Official and/or the Whistleblower Committee may request for written documentation and description of the events based on which a Concern has been raised.
- e. All Investigations shall be carried out under the instructions of the Whistleblower Committee. A Whistleblower can neither be a member of the Whistleblower Committee nor shall a Whistleblower be allowed to participate in any Investigation unless specifically called upon by the Designated Official and/or the Whistleblower Committee.
- f. Pursuant to reporting a Concern, Whistleblower shall not act as finders of fact, or, on his/her own conduct any investigative activities, nor should Whistleblower determine any remedial action. A Whistleblower shall not be entitled to any further information on the status of a Concern.

IV. Good Faith

- a. A Concern shall be deemed to have been communicated in good faith by a Whistleblower if there is a justifiable reasonable basis for communication of any wrongful conduct, or unethical and/or improper practices as perceived by the Whistleblower.
- b. The Whistleblower should act in good faith, on reliable information. The Whistleblower should not report any Concern acting on any mala fide, frivolous or malicious action
- c. Although a Whistleblower is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, the Whistleblower should be able to demonstrate that the Concern is being reported in good faith.

V. Disqualifications

- a. This Policy is not a grievance platform for Employees, or, for raising mala fide, malicious and frivolous allegations. Employees are urged to make allegations in good faith and strictly avoid any abuse of this power, i.e., report any mala fide, frivolous or malicious Concern in bad faith.
- b. A Concern shall be deemed not to be Bona Fide or raised in good faith when a Whistleblower has no personal knowledge of the existence of any fact in respect of a Concern reported by him/her, or, if the Whistleblower knew or can reasonably be presumed to know that the Concern reported by the Whistleblower is mala fide, malicious, and/or frivolous.
- c. In the event it is established beyond doubt that this Policy is being used for making false allegations that are malicious or simply to cause anger, irritation, or distress; the Management at its sole discretion shall be at liberty to initiate appropriate Disciplinary Action in accordance with the Company's rules, policies and procedures, deem fit.
- d. This Policy may not be used as a defence by a Reported Person against whom an adverse personnel action has been taken on account of any Concern reported against him or due to disclosure of information made by him in accordance with the Company's rules and policies.

VI. Confidentiality

By this Policy, no Whistleblower is released from his/her duty of confidentiality in the course of his/her work, nor is this a route for taking up personal grievances in respect of any situation.

VII. Role and Responsibilities of the Designated Official

In addition to any other responsibilities as may be detailed elsewhere in this Policy, following shall be primary responsibilities of the Designated Official:

- i. the Designated Official shall be the sole contact person for all Whistleblower in respect of this Policy, and shall receive all Concerns from the Whistleblower;
- ii. the Designated Official shall evaluate whether or not a Concern, including any Concerns received anonymously, should be investigated further;

- iii. the Designated Official shall be entitled to request for any and all documentation and/or information in respect of a reported Concern from the Whistleblower;
- iv. the Designated Official shall co-ordinate with the Whistleblower and the Whistleblower Committee; and
- v. the Designated Official shall be responsible for closure of all Concerns.

VIII. Investigation Process

- a. Upon receipt of a valid Concern, the Designated Official shall evaluate whether or not a Concern should be investigated further. The Designated Official may, at its sole discretion, make prima facie investigations to decide if the Concern has been made Bona Fide, in good faith, and is not a Disqualified Concern. The Designated Official may, at his discretion, refer a Concern to the Whistleblower Committee for further action.
- b. All Concerns will be investigated in detail by the Whistleblower Committee ("Investigations").
- c. During any such Investigations, the Designated Official and/or the Whistleblower Committee may request for any documents and/or information etc.
- d. The Designated Official or the Whistleblower Committee shall be entitled to dismiss any Concern if it is determined that the Concern has no valid basis, or requires no further investigation.

IX. Scope and Procedure of Investigations

- a. The Whistleblower Committee shall conduct and/or cause that all Investigations are conducted in a fair and judicious manner.
- b. The Whistleblower Committee shall be empowered to frame internal policies and/or regulations from time to time, for the conduct of all Investigations.
- c. The Whistleblower Committee shall within three (3) months of receipt of Concern make detailed written report in respect of each Concern which shall include the following ("Report"):
 - i. facts in respect of the Concern raised;
 - ii. record whether or not Concerns similar to the Concern being investigated have been raised prior to the Concern, which is being investigated, and outcomes thereof;
 - iii. the implications/outcome, including financial irregularity and/or any other loss caused as a result of the event or action for which the Concern has been raised;
 - iv. procedure followed during the Investigation process, including the documents perused, and Employees and/or any other person interviewed;
 - v. findings of the Whistleblower Committee, and the reasons therefor; and

- vi. recommendations of the Whistleblower Committee including any disciplinary actions to be taken.
- d. The Reported Person will be informed of the allegations at the outset and the Reported Person shall be provided adequate opportunities for providing their inputs in respect of any such Investigations.
- e. The Reported Person shall provide all necessary co-operation and assistance to the Whistleblower Committee during the course of Investigations. However, there shall be no violation of any rights against self-incrimination that such Reported Person shall have available to him/her in accordance with applicable laws.
- f. The Reported Person shall not have any right to interfere with the Investigations.
- g. Unless the Company deems it necessary not to do so, the Reported Persons will be granted the right to adequately respond to material findings and evidence gathered during the course of Investigations. The Reported Person shall also have the right to be informed of the outcome of Investigations.
- h. The Whistleblower Committee will determine whether the allegations stand substantiated or not and shall recommend all measures including any Disciplinary Actions required to be taken in respect of a Concern. If substantiated, the Company will not hesitate to take action against the Reported Person.
- i. The Company may also appropriately address any weaknesses and process gaps identified during the course of Investigations or in the Report.

X. Reporting to Audit Committee

- a. An update on all Whistleblower cases will be provided to the Audit Committee every Quarter.
- b. The Audit Committee shall receive information on each and every Concern and further follow-up on actions taken.
- c. Upon completion of Investigations, the Whistleblower Committee shall submit its Report to the Audit Committee for necessary action.
- d. The Audit Committee may further evaluate the concern and put before the Board along with its recommendation.

XI. Reporting to the Board

- a. The Audit Committee shall provide a briefing of the Whistleblower cases to the Board.
- b. The Board shall take actions as it deems appropriate considering the facts and circumstances.

XII. Non-retaliation and Protection

- a. The Company accords and undertakes to provide complete protection to the Whistleblower from any Victimization and/or unfair treatment by virtue of his/her having reported a Bona Fide Concern in accordance with this Policy.

- b. The identity of the Whistleblower shall be kept confidential by the Designated Official and the Whistleblower Committee.
- c. The Company is committed to ensure that no Adverse Action is taken against Whistleblowers. However, the Company reserves the right to take any appropriate action against such Whistleblowers, if they are found to be involved in any kind of non-compliance (to policies, regulations and/or laws) or ethical violation, or, if any performance related lapses are noted.

XIII. Amendment

The Company has the right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason, whatsoever.
